

Nebraska Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy Program presents...

Special Education Advocacy: An Informational Event

Unsure how to ask for and receive school and community supports for a child with a disability?

Do you think children with disabilities would be better served in their schools and communities if they had the assistance of an advocate?

Are you looking for more information on how to advocate effectively for a child with a disability?

Attend a Special Education Advocacy Information Session!

Disability Rights Nebraska will be hosting free, virtual Special Education Advocacy Sessions to help you secure the information you need to effectively advocate for your child in the school system. At the sessions, attendees will...

...explore different advocacy strategies

...receive useful advocacy tools, and

...learn more about how Disability Rights Nebraska can help.
