

Service Animal Information

The owner/handler of this service animal is presenting this card voluntarily and is NOT required to by federal or state law.

This service animal and their access to a public accommodation are protected under the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Refusal to provide equal access to people with disabilities with service animals is a federal civil violation.

For questions regarding the ADA contact the United States Department of Justice Civil Rights Division at 1-800-576-0301.

JUST FOR YOU!

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, businesses may ask:

1. Is this a service animal? or
2. What tasks does the service animal perform?

Businesses may not:

1. Require special identification for the animal.
2. Ask about your disability.
3. Charge additional fees because of the animal.
4. Refuse admission or service, segregate or treat you less favorably than others.

