

CONCERNED ABOUT IEPS AND THE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES?

Consider becoming an educational advocate.

An Advocate can:

- Attend school meetings with you
- Be available if you have a concern and are not sure where to begin
- Provide an opportunity for you to vocalize your concerns, hopes, and ideas on how to support your child's educational experience
- Guide you through the IEP process

The Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy Project matches Advocates with families seeking support at their child's IEP meeting.

Consider becoming an advocate.

Learn about:

- The importance and positive impact of inclusive education on all children
- The laws that guide the Individualized Education Process
- Assessments schools use for identification and how to read them
- What Assistive Technology can do to enhance educational experiences
- School culture and how to communicate with school personnel
- Helping others navigate the Special Education system

Spring Training dates September 10 through October 17, 2024

To learn more about the training click: Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy

For a training schedule click: Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy

To Register for the training click: Registration

For more information, call:

Pat Cottingham at Disability Rights Nebraska
402.413.2016

Or visit our web page: Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy